GUILLAUX, THE FLYING WONDER.

Five large illustrations depicting a wonderful feat by M. Guillaux, the French aviator. The picture shows the monoplane flying perpendicularly through the air. There is also a small picture of the intrepid aviator seated in his monoplane.

ON THE SOUTH COAST.

The South Coast of New South Wales is noted for its beauty spots, and in this issue there is a fine large illustration of a creek scene near Berry. The picture is a really beautiful one and fit to frame.

HOSPITAL SATURDAY.

Interesting articles and illustrations showing some of the principal hospitals, and the ladies who contribute to them.

PICNIC RACING AT COOTAMUNDRA.

The Southern Districts Picnic Race Club's annual meeting, held at Cootamundra on April 26 and May 1 passed off most successfully. In the current issue of the "Journal" there are the pictures of the committee, the club, and the ball. The racing is also described.

ANTARCTIC EXPLORATION.

Mr. Ernest Shackleton is now heavily engaged organizing another Antarctic expedition. A grand and large portrait of the brave explorer appears in this issue.

CAREENING COVE AND NEUTRAL BAY.

These two places are picturesque in the northern cove of Sydney Harbour. They are excellently illustrated in this issue.

This page devoted to things theatrical and musical, is an interesting feature of the "Journal." "The Mayor of Tokyo" at the Adelphi Theatre to be noticed, and there is other interesting reading together with the following illustrations: Miss Amy Murphy, in "The Mayor of Tokyo"; Miss Gertrude Fitchford, in "The Pious Thief"; Louis and William, of the National Opera, from "Beated History" at the Theatre Royal.

SOME FAMOUS CATHE- DRALS.

This is the title of a special illustrated article by M. Bowden, in which he points out the cathedrals of St. Paul, Durham, Lincoln, and Notre-Dame.

HISTORIC PARRAMATTA.

There is a fine view in this issue of Church Street, the main thoroughfare in the historic town of Parramatta, near Sydney.

CHRYSANTHEMUM COLORED COVER.

The colored cover of this issue is a capital printed illustration of a large chrysanthemum. There is also a special article on this popular flower.

PERSONAL.

There are portraits and paragraphs about the following persons in the personal page of this issue—Mr. F. A. Peters, a vice-president of the South Sydney Hospital, who has gone to America; Police Superintendent Sherwood, who has retired; Sir Francis Suttor, M.L.C., who recently celebrated his 75th birthday; Mr. Henry Herron, retired secretary of the G.U.O.F., and the new secretary, Mr. G. H. Sands; Miss Thompson, school teacher, who has just retired; Mr. T. H. Neely, new secretary of the Board of Health; Superintendent W. H. Childs, who was recently promoted to that rank; and Mr. David Mitchell, the veteran bank manager, who has just retired.

Obituary notices and portraits are published of the following persons—Mr. E. H. Rogers, Mr. J. Thompson Brown, and Mr. Isaac Barnshaw.

On another page there is a fine group picture of the members of the N.S.W. Railway and Tramway Rifle Union.
