

A7-21 Cirrus Moth: First night flying demonstration in illuminated plane given by Squadron leader Smart. Aircraft was A7-21 but now owned by Australian Aero Club, represented by Mr S W Dobson. Date not clear, probably 1929.

6-29

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN VICTORIA a night flying display was given at Essendon on Saturday by the Victorian section of the Australian Aero Club, represented by Squadron leader Smart. Aircraft was A7-21 but now owned by Australian Aero Club, represented by Mr S W Dobson. Date not clear, probably 1929.